

ATTENTION: ELITE GOLFERS

2018 FIRST COAST AMATEUR

Hidden Hills Golf Club, Jacksonville, Fla.

Jan. 13-15

- JAGA invites elite players from North Florida and around the country to visit Jacksonville and compete in this championship-caliber event. Last year's inaugural tournament featured 77 players from the college, amateur/mid-amateur and junior ranks. They hailed from 11 states, four countries and 12 colleges.
- Hidden Hills GC is a 6,900-yard Arnold Palmer Signature course. In the early 1970s it hosted the PGA TOUR's Greater Jacksonville Open, with Gary Player, Tony Jacklin and Don January among the winners.
- Entry fee: $275
- A mid-amateur competition has been added for entrants age 25+.
- The 2017 champion was Brandon Mancheno of Jacksonville, Fla.
- The 54-hole stroke-play event is sponsored by the Jacksonville Area Golf Association, which annually conducts Jacksonville's top-level amateur competitions.

ENTRY FORMS, DETAILS AND PAYMENT:
WWW.JAXAREAGOLF.ORG

